Wanted: Willing Hands to Help Coordinate Operation Christmas Child

Operation Christmas Child is the shoe box ministry of gifts and gospel messages for children around the world. There are many areas that could be adopted:

- Prayer coordinator
- Publicity, bulletin announcements
- Organize helpers to wrap shoe boxes
- Sort and organize gifts
- Seek donations outside our church family
- Organize the packing night
- Take the boxes to the drop off in Sedalia

Right now, willing hands could be wrapping shoe boxes. We have many boxes that have been brought in and wrapping paper. For any students that would like to wrap boxes, it could count toward services hours (does not apply to youth group activities).

If you have questions or would be willing to take on an area or assist in an area, please call or email Sherry Sumner (660) 473-2489 or sherryds@gmail.com.

Thank you for your consideration of this worthwhile ministry.

Help for the Family

In our Adventures in Parenting session we talked last week about websites that are focused on the family. Here are a few very helpful ones.

http://www.familylife.com/site/c.dnJHKLNnFoG/b.3082787/k.ECE8/Help_and_Hope_for_Marriages_and_Families.htm

Family Life is a division of Campus Crusade for Christ. It was founded by Dallas Theological Seminary graduate, Dennis Rainey. Their website offers online help with parenting and marriage issues. They have small group studies and weekend seminars (usually there is one or more per year in Overland Park). We took a group of about 8-10 couples to one in the year 2000??

Offers the same sort of resources but may focus more on satellite uplink type conferences. This ministry was founded by psychologist Dr. James Dobson and has been the major source of help for the family in the last 30 years. They have radio programs that are helpful and can be accessed online. They have a monthly e-newsletter that is helpful.

Family Matters is run by Tim Kimmel, another Dallas Seminary graduate. Tim is a brilliant writer — humorous and profound. We might do well to consider a video series of his next year.

A sound biblical studies site is bible.org. You can search by Scripture passage or topic. A very rich site.
